Durham Youth Commission Seeks Applicants

Online Applications Now Available; April 30 Deadline to Apply

DURHAM, N.C. – Durham youth who want a voice in their City government are now being invited to apply to serve on the Durham Youth Commission.

Beginning tomorrow, interested youth are encouraged to download an application and apply to serve a one-year term on 2017-2018 commission, which consists of 30 members from grades 9–12 chosen by a selection committee composed of the City staff members, peers, and Durham residents.

Durham Youth Commission members commit to a one-year term of service; serve on City boards and committees as appointed and attend all meetings of those boards and committees; complete 40 hours of community service during their term of service; as well as attend and actively participate in all meetings, service projects, and special events sponsored by the commission.

Durham youth interested in submitting an application must reside within Durham County; express an interest in contributing to the greater well-being of Durham; commit to 100 percent participation in all activities; demonstrate leadership in school and/or community activities; and complete the required application with two reference letters postmarked by April 30, 2017. Completed application packets should be mailed to the City of Durham Office on Youth, attention Durham Youth Commission, 101 City Hall Plaza, Durham, N.C. 27701.

In addition to downloading an application from the City's website, hard-copy applications are also be available at the Durham Teen Center, 1101 Cornell St.; Durham Public Schools middle and high school guidance counselor offices as well as in private and home schools; and at the Durham County Public Library Main Branch, 300 N. Roxboro St.

For more information, visit the City's Office on Youth website or contact Senior Community Relations Coordinator Evelyn Scott at (919) 354-2730, ext. 11104 or by email.
